

BCIN

Bibliographic Database of the Conservation Information Network

BCIN CONTENT

What is BCIN?	Available online since 1987, BCIN is a trusted resource for professionals, museums and other heritage organizations. It facilitates retrieval and exchange of information on cultural heritage preservation. For now, the database contains more than 275,000 citations. The first 34 volumes of the Art and Archaeological Technical abstracts are also contained in this database (prior to 1998).
Which bibliographic materials contains BCIN?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • books, published and unpublished monographs and serials • journal articles • monographic analytics • conference proceedings • technical reports and theses • audio visual materials • software and machine-readable files • and more
Which features and functions are available?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • simple search • advanced search • search history • search tips • citation • e-mail result • print result • export records in standard formats • bookbag to collect selected items

	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• login function• creation of lists• language selection• facets and filters• leave comments• ask a Librarian• and more
Is BCIN up-to-date?	The BCIN database is being continuously updated and reflects all new acquisitions of the catalogues of contributing Libraries and Organisations.
