Loan of books

In some cases, the ICCROM Library will send materials to requesting libraries via interlibrary loan, depending on the distance of the requesting facility from Rome, the condition and rarity of the book, as well as on-site demand.

Interlibrary loans are provided for no longer than three weeks. Rare books and journals are unavailable for interlibrary loan. Return of materials must be assured using a registered delivery service with a tracking number; this number must be communicated to the ICCROM Library by the librarian at the requesting facility.

CHARGES:

ICCROM does not charge for the loan itself. Postage charges will be passed on to the borrower.

Photocopies and scans

ICCROM will reproduce any reference found in BCIN with an ICCROM location, subject to the limits of copyright legislation. Find more information on our services here.
